

THE PERSON COMES FIRST

A Dementia Research & Caregiving Symposium

Presented by Maplewood Senior Living, in partnership with the Alzheimer's Association,
Benjamin Rose Institute on Aging &
Northeast Ohio Medical University

---

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 2017

9:00 AM – 2:00 PM

Holiday Inn
6001 Rockside Road
Independence, Ohio

---

We invite you to join us for The Person Comes First, a symposium tailored for both family members and caregivers. Offering an in-depth look into dementia, Alzheimer's disease, latest research and available medications, the symposium will feature renowned expert speakers, a multitude of engaging presentations and valuable resources available to caregivers.

Cost to attend is $10 per person.

Payments can be made online by credit or debit cards. Checks should be made payable to Maplewood Senior Living. For more information, contact Stacie Feiock at 330.840.7404 or email sfeiock@maplewoodsl.com.

---

Thank you to our Gold Sponsors

Clear Vista Health Center
Skylight Financial Group

Keynote Speakers:

David M. Bass, Ph.D.,
Senior Vice President,
Center for Research &
Education at Benjamin Rose
Institute on Aging

Jason Richardson,
MS, Ph.D., DABT
Director of Neurodegenerative
Disease & Aging Research Focus Area, Acting Associate Dean for Research College of Pharmacy and Professor of Pharmaceutical Sciences at Northeast Ohio
Medical University